Wins / Challenges and things of note

Technology frustrations really took it out of me. I need to better cope with those challenges.

Food / Fitness / Health Log

Not a great day fitness wise, spent most of the day on the computer and was too tired to go to gym or a walk around the neighborhood. Saturday and Sunday will be very physically active days , and I'm ramping back up to digital heavy days and walk / gym every night.

Trailer prep went very well. We will finish it up in the morning.
